

Northern Italy: A day on the wild river

A day dedicated to the most exciting sports: rafting, hydro-speed, kayak on a wild-water river: waves, rapids...clean water and pools to swim All of it in a safe environment, even for those who never tried this sort of sports... for sure you won't get bored !

Rafting or Hydro-speed in Veneto: beautiful descent on the Brenta River, a course of approx. 10 kms. The journey lasts 2h30 through an amazing natural environment. River and Mountains play the main role of this programmes dedicated to people that love open air activities following the natural rhythm.

Kayak: Away from the city, completely immersed in nature...you will learn how to face rapids, waves...you will find out step by step the secrets of the river, a peculiar natural surroundings that will give you new and exciting emotions.

What an experience! One that will never be forgotten.....

Classes are always run by Federal Kayak Teachers that will grant you quality and reliability.